OUR LADY OF EDEN PARISH

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
29th January 2017

In today's Gospel, Jesus sets out what has been called 'The Charter of the Kingdom of God.' We may know it as The Sermon on the Mount or The Beatitudes. It is sort of the New Testament equivalent of the Ten Commandments; Jesus sets out the attitudes of disposition of those who would follow him.

CAFOD: Did you know.... CAFOD's belief in human dignity inspires its work with some of the poorest communities around the world? Seeing that all people need more than food – they need love, warmth, respect, a chance to be educated and the opportunity to work - this is seeing all peoples as made in God's image. Treating everyone with human dignity is integral to our faith, and the vision of dignity being a 'divine gift' continues to inspire us in our daily work. Thank you for all you do to make this possible.
