OUR LADY OF EDEN PARISH
FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY
7th May 2017

This Sunday of Easter has long been called 'Good Shepherd Sunday' because the Gospel depicts Christ as the Good Shepherd. It has also, by tradition, become a special day on which to pray for vocations to the priesthood. Priestly vocations are few and far between, the Lord is still calling but few are responding. One of our aims as a parish would be to create a 'culture of vocation' where it would be the most natural thing for a family to encourage a son to consider a priestly vocation. The last ordination from here was in 1982!

MAY PROCESSION

To honour Our Lady, we will hold a procession at the conclusion of 10am Mass on May 14th OLSJ & later at 3pm we will have Rosary and Evening Prayer. No parking in church ground OLSJ before Mass.
May 21st WB procession after the 9am Mass & later at 3pm we will have Rosary and Evening Prayer.

CAFOD: Did you know.... as the election campaign unfolds, your voice is critical? With the news dominated by Brexit, there's a risk of other critical issues falling off the agenda. We'd like to thank CAFOD supporters who write and speak to MPs to ensure this doesn't happen. Pope Francis himself warns that people living in poverty can often be an 'afterthought' in political discussions and that's why it's so important that we remind candidates of the need to remain an outward-looking nation – one that cares for the interests of people in the world's poorest communities.

COLLECTIONS LAST WEEK: £ 1,184.95 Thank you. Attendance: 313
