OUR LADY OF EDEN, CARLISLE

20th January 2019

SECOND SUNDAY YEAR 'C'

Today we revert to green vestments which signify the Ordinary Time of the Church's Year. This is year 'C' in the Liturgical cycle, the year when St. Luke's Gospel is read – but not today! Today with St. John's account of the Cana wedding, we hear the last of three Gospels that have been about the revelation of Christ. Two Sundays ago it was the wise men who had Christ revealed to them; last week, at the baptism, Jesus was revealed as 'the beloved Son.' Today, at his first miracle, prompted by our Blessed Lady, his disciples 'believe in him.' We too, are called to believe in him.

Aid to the Church in Need.'

THIS WEEKEND there will be an appeal on behalf of this organisation which seeks to support those often forgotten Christians suffering for their faith.
