OUR LADY OF EDEN, CARLISLE WITH ST CUTHBERT'S, WIGTON

22nd July 2018
SIXTEENTH SUNDAY YEAR 'B'

Today's Gospel is rather appropriate as the holiday season approaches. We hear Jesus tell the Apostles that they should rest after all the hard work they had accomplished. He even goes so far as to take them to a quiet place for rest and relaxation. The message here, even though Jesus found crowds waiting for him, is that rest and relaxation are part of the cycle of life blessed by God.

CARLISLE FOOD BANK:
Have let us know that they are perilously short of supplies. Gifts may be left at the back of church.

HANDMAIDS OF THE HOLY CHILD JESUS

It is with regret that we announce that the Sisters who live at Warwick Bridge Presbytery and serve in the parish are being transferred to a new apostolate in Blackpool. A Mass of thanksgiving and farewell will be organised soon.

Priests: Fr. Christopher Loughran & Fr. Francis Osman.

Deacons: Rev. Bill Kirkley & Rev. John Constable

PRESBYTERY: The Rectory, Warwick Square, Carlisle CA1 1LB Tel. [01228] 521509

CAFOD: Pope Francis has been given a set of letters written by pupils in schools across England and Wales, in response to the Pope's encyclical, Laudato Si'?. CAFOD's Head of Education, Monica Connee, handed the letters to the Holy Father at the Vatican. The Pope's encyclical urges everyone to care for 'our common home' because of the impact the climate change is having on the world's poorest people. Monica said: "It was an amazing moment to share the beautiful letters with Pope Francis. The Pope looked thrilled to receive the letters and it seemed he couldn't wait to look through the album.
